

LoVe <3

Goodbyes are meant for lonely people standing in the rain
And no matter where I go it's always pouring the same way,

These streets are filled with memories
They make me feel in pain
And all I wanna do is love you
But I'm the only one to blame

Because today you walked out of my life
Because today your words felt like a knife ..

But I'll still love you no matter what
Because a boy like you is impossible to find.
