Those students who have borrowed extra books to sit examinations on their own (eg Environmental Studies/Home Economics) are to return these books to the Librarians. The same applies to the small number of students who have not yet returned Library Books and Italian Reading books.

To save yourselves the trouble of having to return to school with books you have forgotten at home, please check that all your books are in order. May we remind you that no School Leaving/Exemption Certificates will be issued unless ALL text books/library books have been returned or paid for (if lost or damaged).

Thank you
The Librarians
